Requester's Name (Printed): _____

Date of Request: _____

When necessary, requests may be redirected to The Library at Westminster Theological Seminary, The PCA Historical Center, Serge, the Miller family, etc.

I request access materials from The Jack Miller Project Collection and agree to the following:

1. I understand that reproduction of any materials in the collection in any format for any purpose is prohibited by The Jack Miller Project.
2. I understand that permission from the copyright holder is required when quoting from published works at a length of over 1,000 total words, or 400 words in a single quote.
3. I understand that quotes from unpublished materials and small published works cannot be "substantial".
4. I understand that the copyright of unpublished material belongs to the creator(s) and in the case of a letter, it belongs to the sender or those to whom the rights passed after the sender's death.
5. I understand that it is solely my responsibility as the researcher to obtain all necessary permissions from all copyright holders in order to include copyrighted material in any published format.
6. I understand that written permission is required from Michael Graham, Director of The Jack Miller Project, to quote from any materials in The Jack Miller Project Collection.
7. I understand that material in the collection is to be documented and credited as follows: The Jack Miller Project, Box [Insert Box #], File [Insert File #], Archives and Special Collections, Library at Southeastern, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest, North Carolina.
8. Access approval expires six months after date of request. If further access is desired a new Access Request Form must be submitted after expiration of this form.
